

Experience

Industrial Economics Incorporated Senior Research Analyst – Cambridge, MA 2018 – Present

- Conduct analyses of the costs and benefits of proposed federal environmental and public health regulations
- Develop flexible economic modeling tools to help state and federal clients understand the impacts of public policy on regulated industries and the broader economy
- Analyze economic, environmental, and regulatory data from public sources and internal government data sets using a variety of quantitative, qualitative, and spatial analysis methods
- Prepare memorandums and reports documenting analysis methods and findings for internal client use and publication

University of Vermont Research Assistant – Burlington, VT 2016 – 2018

- Supported Dr. Emily Beam, Professor of Economics, with labor market, workforce development, job training, and education research
- Developed Stata scripts to prepare and analyze survey data using econometric methods
- Conducted literature reviews and edited manuscripts

Pennsylvania State University Summer Research Assistant – State College, PA 2017

- Assisted Dr. Daniel Grodzicki, Professor of Economics, with research analyzing the evolution of competition in the credit card market
- Updated regression analysis of credit card and bank data sets using Stata

Univ. of Vermont Writing Center Writing Tutor – Burlington, VT 2015 – 2018

- Selected by a committee of professors to participate in a yearlong seminar to develop writing tutor skills
- Engaged in a collaborative process to help students improve their writing and achieve academic success
- Tutored for 150+ hours

Education

University of Vermont Burlington, VT 2014 – 2018

- B.A. in Economics (3.72 Cumulative GPA, 3.66 Major GPA)

Awards:

- Departmental Honors
- Freeman Saltus Award (Link)
- Milton J. Nadworny Award (Link)

Skills and Certifications

Programming and Software

- Proficient in R, Stata and Microsoft Excel, Access, Word, and PowerPoint
- Working knowledge of ArcGIS, Python, SQL, and VBA

Certifications

- College Reading and Learning Association (CLRA) certified tutor
- Public Trust Security Clearance (U.S. Food and Drug Administration)